

PRESS RELEASE

Nov / Dec 2011

Design National Award winners 2011

Inspire. Promote. Change... Exemplars of this sustainable design thinking process were recently awarded over $11,000 in prizes as encouragement to continue their great work and a big thank you for their significant efforts made to create such a successful show.

SRD Change 11 National : graduate sustainable design exhibition featured in major Design and Eco events in Sydney in 2011 at venues that are themselves leading innovative green buildings and sites.

The exhibition identifies leading examples of positive change and best green practice in design projects by talented University graduates from across Australia. The entire process features cross-discipline collaboration of designers with SRD to coordinate all the elements of a professional event with a minimum of resources. Intended to showcase, direct and enlighten all while acknowledging the huge capacity for Responsible Design to make significant inroads to creating our sustainable future, starting now.
